Registration announcement for new HSK 2013

The UO Confucius Institute is sponsoring the Chinese HSK Proficiency Exam (http://www.chinesetest.cn)

Saturday, April 20, 2013 in the Knight Library Edmiston Classroom (room 144) on the UO Campus

Register online for the "UO April 20" testing location at Chinese HSK Proficiency Exam (http://www.chinesetest.cn) by April 10, 2013

China's Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi or Chinese Proficiency Test will be held on the University of Oregon campus at Knight Library 144. Registered participants should arrive at 9:15 am on Saturday.

Students must complete the regular registration process. Please pay online with your credit card.

The HSK exam sections and associated fees are as follows:
1 Beginning $20
2 Basic $30
3 Elementary/Intermediate $40
4 Elementary/Intermediate $50
5 Intermediate / Advanced $60
6 Advanced * required for the Language Flagship capstone year $70

You can check your score about one month after the test on line by visiting: http://www.chinesetest.cn/

For more information contact:
- Chunyan He, Instructor of the UO Confucius institute at 346-8298 chunyanh@uoregon.edu
- Dr. Dai Lan, Co-Director of the UO Confucius Institute at 346-8298, dailan@uoregon.edu
- Chinese Flagship Coordinator, Genevieve Beecher at 346-1766