Chinese Language Competition

The first Chinese Folktale Video Competition at the Confucius Institute is now open for registration! Any non-native Chinese-speaker who would like to show his/her talent by performing a Chinese folktale in Chinese is welcome to apply. Families and groups are welcome. To apply, please send or bring the following:

* Completed registration form;
* A 5-7 minute (maximum) video of your performance (on CD) OR upload your video to youtube and provide us with the link;
* A 2-3 minute clip from your video (on CD) OR upload your video to youtube and provide us with the link;
* A brief written introduction, in English, about yourself and the folktale you’ve chosen; to the Confucius Institute office in Gerlinger 103, or via email: confucius@uoregon.edu before February 10th. The competition/viewing will be held on February 27, 2014, from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm in the Great Hall of the Global Scholars Hall (room 123).

Registration requirements

 Participants can perform solo, or families and friends may perform as a group.
 Each registered performer may perform one folktale, which should not be longer than 5-7 minutes.
 The jury will consider language proficiency, emotional resonance, performance, and creativity.
Attractive prizes for the first, second and third place will be given to the winners!

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact:

Chunyan He,  chunyanh@uoregon.edu,  541-346-8298
Lan Dai,  dailan@uoregon.edu,  541-346-8298
Genevieve Beecher:  gbeecher@uoregon.edu,  541-346-1766
Or you can drop by at the UO Confucius Institute:  Gerlinger 103.