Chinese Language & Culture Challenges

Chinese Culture Talent Show

Good news! The winter 2015 Chinese Talent Show now is open for registration! We welcome any non-native Chinese-speaker to show their talents! Any Chinese language or Chinese culture related performance is welcome. For example, you can play a traditional Chinese music instrument, sing a Chinese song, tell a Chinese story, in Chinese or English, or show your acting talent in a Chinese skit.

To apply, please download the registration form on our website, and then send it back. Here is what we need from you:

- The completed registration form;
- A brief written introduction, in English, about yourself and the type of performance you’ve chosen;
- If your performance is made into a video, please upload your video to Youtube and provide us with the link.

Please send the above materials to confucius@uoregon.edu or bring them to the Confucius Institute office in Gerlinger 103. The show will be held on February 12, 2015, from 6:00 - 8:00pm, at the LLC Performance Hall.

Performance requirements
- Participants can perform solo, or families and friends may perform as a group.
- Each registered performer may perform one show, which should be 3 - 7 minutes long.

Prizes and Awards

Awards will be given in each of the following categories: creativity, stage presence and performance. Performances in Chinese or English will be considered as separate groups.

Talented contestants will also have the opportunity of being recommended for the Chinese Bridge competition to be held in April and the Chinese Spring Festival online celebration.
