Chinese Paper Cutting Course for University and Community Members

This class offers an introduction to Chinese Paper Cutting. Chinese Paper Cutting is a traditional part of Chinese culture. Through hands-on practice, students study the various techniques of traditional Chinese Paper Cutting. At the same time, students have a chance to know more about Chinese traditions and cultures related to Chinese Paper Cutting. Instruction will be in English. No prior knowledge of Chinese is necessary.

Class time: Begins one month after spring term starts and meets once for three hours a week for four weeks.

Registration Fee: $20

How to register: Visit the Craft Center website or walk to the Craft Center at EMU, UO.

Website: http://craftcenter.uoregon.edu